

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has effectively stopped many unwanted telemarketers. I only wish there was a way to stop more of these calls.